Report on Session on How to Pass through Group Discussion organized by Placement Team, S. R. Luthra Institute of Management, Surat on 20th July 2019 from 9:30 AM – 11:00 AM

Many Companies Consider "Group Discussion" as one of the criteria for screening the candidates for face-to-face interviews. Most of the time it is used for mass elimination. Various worthy candidates who actually have the talent to crack personal interview find it tough to crack group discussion and lose out on a vital career opportunity. Considering the same SRLIM Placement Team had organized a Session on How to Pass Through Group Discussion for the students of Semester III so as to make them competent to face the Group Discussion at the time of Campus Placements. The session was held on 20th July 2019 from 9:30 AM – 11:00 AM by Mr. Riddhish Joshi, Assistant Professor, SRLIM.

The Session acquainted them with the criteria of evaluation of Group Discussion like Ability to work in a team, Communication skill (+ Listening ability), Leadership traits, Reasoning ability, Firmness, Compatibility to differences, Conflict resolution, Ability to think independently and Knowledge. The Students were also made familiar about the type of roles they may possess varying from positive (Initiator, Supporter, Reconciler and Pathfinder) and negative (Interrupter and Pretender).

The students were provided with some basic guidelines as to how to have a positive approach during the entire group discussion sessions.
